

Washington – Today, Congressman John Olver (1st District) is criticizing a decision by President

"Not only is the President breaking a campaign promise, he has made a decision that

Congressman Olver is a co-chair of the House-formed bipartisan Climate Change Caucus, a group that

"As a scientist, I believe climate change is the single most critical environmental issue

In a speech given on September 29, 2000 in Michigan, Bush said, "We will require all

The largest source of carbon dioxide in the U.S. is the electric power industry, account

###